CEDAR WOODS TAKES THE STRESS OUT OF BUILDING A NEW HOME

Cedar Woods has launched a Ready-to-Build homes program in partnership with ONE by TERRACE, where all the tough design decisions have already been taken care of.

Home buyers can stress less and get into their brand-new homes sooner than expected whilst still making the most of the Government grants. The range of tailored house and land packages start from just over $400k with 3 and 4-bedroom options available.

The teams at Cedar Woods and ONE by TERRACE have worked closely together to pre-select the layout, design, colours and finishes to ensure the space is maximised and thoughtfully designed.

To be eligible for up to $55K* in Government grants, packages from the Ready-to-Build homes program must be purchased by December 1st, 2020.

Cedar Woods WA State Manager Ben Rosser said the Ready-to-Build homes offer a hassle-free solution to buyers looking to move in sooner and skip the design process.

“Building a home can be stressful and there are hundreds of decisions to be made during the pre-build process,” Mr Rosser said.

“Not everyone who has chosen to build a house has an interest in design, so they’re happy to leave it up to the experts. We’ve made it easy and provided our customers with the finished products.”

The Ready-to-build homes are located in sought after Cedar Woods estates: Solaris Private Estate (Forrestdale), Ariella Private Estate (Brabham) and Bushmead (Bushmead), each of which boasts close proximity to schools, nature trails and local amenities.

House and land packages start from $410,921*. For more information, visit the estate websites:
